New York Celebrates Juneteenth >

On June 19, 1865, Union soldiers arrived in Texas with news that the Civil War had ended and that enslaved people were free. Governor Cuomo has proposed legislation to make today a state holiday.

DACA Stands >

Chancellor Matos Rodríguez applauded the U.S. Supreme Court ruling yesterday upholding the basic value of fairness by preserving DACA. Five current and former CUNY students served as co-plaintiffs, carrying the banner for hundreds of thousands nationwide.

Protest Art Night >

Join Hunter's Arts Ambassadors and Office of the Arts for an art-making workshop on Zoom. We'll explore works created by Black artists in response to injustice, and offer you an opportunity to create your own. Gather your art materials, and please RSVP.
